The Bank is authorized to make all inquiries the Bank deems necessary to verify the accuracy of the information contained herein, and to determine the credit-worthiness of the undersigned, including accessing third party credit reporting agencies. Each of the undersigned authorizes the Bank to answer questions about the Bank's credit experience with the undersigned. The undersigned understand that the Bank will retain this statement and information contained herein whether or not credit is extended.

You have the right to request us not to share certain personal credit information (such as information we collect about you above and on your credit report), other than as permitted by law, with our affiliates. To do so, you may call our Loan Department at 1-610-628-1828. This request will apply only to the sharing of certain personal credit information among our affiliates and will take effect as soon as reasonably practicable.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT - To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person, business, non-profit, etc. who opens an account. What this means for you: If you are an individual, when you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. For businesses, partnerships, non-profits, etc. we will ask for Articles of Incorporation, Corporate Resolutions, Beneficial Ownership forms (if applicable), or similar documents so that we can identify your entity.
